Seek More Country Doctors

JOLIET -- Illinois areas in need of doctors received a shot in the arm from the Illinois State Senate with the passage of a resolution sponsored by State Senator Meade Baltz (R-41st District).

Senate Joint Resolution 31 urges the University of Illinois Board of Trustees to double the allocation of spaces in its medical school for applicants sponsored by a program under joint auspices of the Illinois Agricultural Association (IAA) and the Illinois State Medical Society (ISMS).

This program is provided ten admission slots in the University of Illinois (U of I) Medical School each year for students who agree to practice medicine for five years in an area where a sufficient number of doctors are not now practicing.

"In effect," Senator Baltz said, "rural areas of Illinois benefit from this program, because this is where there is a shortage of doctors".

His resolution urges the U of I Medical School to allow 20 slots to the IAA-ISMS program instead of ten.

The resolution drew bipartisan support from down-state senators, whose districts would most directly benefit from the increased allocations.

"Medical Schools are limited as to the number of students they can admit each year," the Joliet Republican stated. "I feel dedicated men should be encouraged to practice medicine where they are most needed."

The IAA-ISMS program presently insures that at least ten students admitted in each Medical School class will practice medicine in a doctor-depressed area.

"Ten men in each class is not enough," Senator Baltz noted. "Last January there were 34 applicants for the ten slots available."

Because U of I Medical School applicants far outnumber the facilities available, the Medical School accepts those applicants with the highest academic scores.

"This method of selecting students, while academically sound, completely ignores a man's dedication to the practice of medicine," the Joliet Senator said.

Under the IAA-ISMS program 10 students are selected each year by a board comprised of three members of the IAA board of directors, two representatives of the ISMS and three doctors. Sitting on the board

Adopts $ 3.5 Million Levy

LOCKPORT -- District 205 High School board adopted a $3,417,317 levy at Thursday's regular meeting. Budget hearing was held prior to the regular meeting. Levy is $2,224,547 for the educational fund; $1,970,037, transportation; $617,929, building; $56,500, IMRF; $123,595, working cash; $123,585, fire prevention and safety; $24,000, liability insurance; and $49,434, the two cent levy for the special education building program.

Les Rorbeck, business manager, said the district has $1,663,200 outstanding in tax anticipation warrants. Educational fund has used $1,300,000; building, $300,000; and transportation, $63,200.

He requested permission to delay payment of bills until the $110,000 in tax anticipation warrants are in the bank. District will receive $60,000 protested tax money sometime this week. There is an additional $340,000 outstanding in protested taxes said Rorbeck.

Resolution to sell $110,000 tax anticipation warrants was approved with the interest rate not to exceed six per cent. This is a statutory maximum said Attorney John Cirricione.

Board approved a blanket resolution for forthcoming warrants for the educational and building funds only.

An interfund loan of $72,350 was approved from the educational fund to the building fund.

Because of action taken at the previous meeting, the tentative budget for the driver education program was changed. Board had only allowed $4,000 but this was raised by $73,000 making the new allotment $77,000.

Board approved the recommendation of Superintendent Harold Scholle to allow Richard Wunderlich and James Warthen to attend the diversified metals workshop. Wunderlich will receive expenses but will not receive any salary schedule as he is already a fully qualified teacher for this program.

Warthen is only provisionally trained for the diversified metals occupations so he will be given the choice of salary or college credit along with expenses.

Locker base bid was given to Pasch Construction at a cost of $6,160. He was the only bidder although four were invited to bid.

Beatrice Meadow Gold of Kankakee was the only bidder on the ice cream. Board approved the bid.

Discuss Reduction Of Valuation

LOCKPORT--Reduction of the assessed valuation was emphasized at Tuesday's District 92 school board meeting. Assessed valuation was $57,933,298 last year and this year it has dropped to $53,958,468.

Attorney John Lynch said he investigated and found out that Texaco Inc. had torn down one of its units. This reduced Texaco's valuation by 25 per cent according to Attorney Lynch. This means that Texaco is only worth $15 million said Attorney Lynch. He feels the district should have been notified of this drastic reduction.

He has checked with the Lockport Township assessor, James Murphy, and the Will County Board of Review, but he intends to investigate further.

Four teachers were approved for hiring. They are Roger Bancroft, Barbara Gutierrez, Philip Matarelli and John Scanlon.

Resignations of Alice Holmes and Phyllis Yahnke, both Reed School teachers, were approved. Board granted leave of absences to Mrs. Keitha Anderson and Janice Walkey.

Board approved two boys for summer help. Jim Egley was unable to accept the position and Mike Pope was hired in his place. Jerry Vercellotti was hired as an additional helper for the three buildings. This makes four summer boys instead of three.

Earl Wardrum, architect, had a long discussion with the board on the emergency lighting at Ludwig and Reed Schools. This is part of the life safety code work.

Plumbing problem at Walsh School will be taken care of this summer.

Board approved the low bid of $334 from Reliable Fencing of Lockport for the 10 by 30 foot fence to be installed around the gas meter at Walsh.

Other bids were $398.47 from Will County. Fencing and $401.60 from Sears Roebuck.

Bids on seven musical instruments were opened and tabulated. Six companies replied, Keck's of Joliet, Mattei of Joliet, Musart, Lyon and Healy, Quinlan and Fabish and Karne's. Some companies did not bid on all instruments. Board tabled the purchase of any instruments to the next meeting.

A 20 minute executive session was held with no action taken. According to Bill Heninger, board president, the discussion was on getting the auditor, bookkeeper and treasurer coordinated for a quarterly audit.

Flag Day! Patriotism Not Dead

Citizens in Lemont were graphically reminded of Flag Day last week by patriots who in the wee hours of the morning staked out small flags on the lawns of homes along Logan Street. Sponsored by Richard Pekof-ske of the Lemont Savings & Loan, the group distributed 1,200 flags. The patriotic action was reflected later in the morning by the number of residents who displayed the American Flag from their homes.

House Unit Approves Child Hearing Tests

NAPERVILLE --

The Illinois House of Representatives Public Welfare Committee recommended passage of a program requiring hearing tests for all Illinois children no later than their first year in any school.

State Senator Harris W. Fawell (R-40th District), Senate sponsor and author of the legislation, said it appropriates $75,000 for the Department of Public Health to administer the act for one year starting Sept. 1, 1970.

"Many times a child is considered retarded," Senator Fawell said, "and after many years of damage it is found the only thing wrong with the child is that he has a hearing defect."

The Naperville Republican explained the legislation, the first of its kind in Illinois, stems from a three-year investigation conducted by the Commission on Children. Commission discovered that approximately 250,000 children enter school in Illinois for the first time each year, and almost 125,000 receive no hearing screening services.

Fawell, one of four legislators on the commission, explained, "The two-to-five year age bracket is the vital learning period. This legislation is geared to catch hearing defects in pre-school activities."

The bill would apply to all schools, including day care centers and nursery schools.

"The testing process is not a simple process," the legislative leader explained. "It requires the use of an audiometer operated by a specialist. Most doctors do not have this instrument in their offices."

Bill passed the Senate with a bare minimum of 30 yes votes even though it had the support of the Senate Republican leadership, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Department of Public Health, the Department of Children and Family Services and the Ogilvie administration.

"Passage could be difficult in the House. A new idea always faces barriers when it is opposed by people not attuned to new thoughts," the Republican senator said.

Legislation has been referred to the House Appropriations Committee and is being managed in the House by State Rep. Mrs. Robert C. (Giddy) Dyer (R-38th District).

De Paulo's House Has 10 Months To Stand

MOKENA -- Joseph DePaulo, who was facing the immediate removal of a house bordering his recently built apartment dwelling to provide parking space, has won a respite.

He explained to the village board committee that he has this house under lease with 10 more months to run. The committee decided not to break DePaulo's rice bowl, so to speak, and will let the lease run but when it expires the house must come down.

DePaulo expressed his willingness to sign such an agreement, which Village Attorney George Sangmeister is now preparing. According to members of the previous administration De Paulo allegedly agreed to tear the house down and utilize the space for off-street parking for his apartment tenants. But nothing was put in writing.

The people occupying the house can remain there for another 10 months, according to the agreement between the village and DePaulo but they may feel a bit crowded at times because their rear yard will be used for parking by the apartment tenants, it was explained.

Vote June 21 On Bond Issue

LOCKPORT -- Lockport city residents will vote Saturday, June 21, on a $750,000 sewer bond issue to enlarge the sewage treatment plant. State has demanded that the facility be enlarged to handle the growing population.

If the bond issue passes, the city stands a good chance of receiving a federal grant of $220,000 which would pay a portion of the project or help start a program of separating the combined sanitary and storm sewers located in the older sections. This program also is mandatory.

If the bond issue fails, the city could be ordered by the state to finance this project by issuing revenue bonds which would more than double the water and sewer rates.

City will have four polling places. They are Homerding's garage, ward one; Lockport Township library, ward two; Lockport Central High School, ward three; and Taft School, ward four. Polls will be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Taft School OKs Budget

By Ilmae Hewit

LOCKPORT --

Budget hearing was held and approved at the Taft Grade School board meeting last Monday. Budget approved was $110,000, educational fund; $30,000, building fund; and $2,000, IMRF.

Attorney Glenn Miller was rehired for the coming year at a $900 yearly salary.

Board approved the request of the Lockport City Council to use Taft School for the city's upcoming sewer bond referendum June 21.

Mr. D'Amico, Taft School teacher, was to be reimbursed the $31.32 spent for ceiling tile. D'Amico rents a school owned home and will have this amount deducted from his July rent.

Board approved changing this school policy on cleaning band uniforms as requested by Mrs. Ann Nielson, band parents' representative. She requested change to read: "A charge shall be made to all band students of $4 per year for cleaning of uniforms and, students coming in after the first semester will be charged $2.50."

Majority of the students who took the National Reading test showed reading abilities above their grade levels according to Charles Lain, board president, who read the scores.

Parents voted down the towel service four to one according to the returns.

Doyne Wheatley, superintendent, returned from the Washington D.C. trip and reported that this was the best trip ever and that he had no trouble with the bus or the students.

Pilot For Airport Site In Will County

Forest Dines, an air pilot of 24 years experience, appeared at the meeting of the Mayor's Airport Committee of Chicago last Friday to voice disapproval of the Lake Michigan site for a third international airport in the Chicago area and advocate placing it in Green Garden Township.

Green Garden, he pointed out, offers plenty of flat land for adequate runways.

He said pilots favor runways 10,000 to 12,000 feet long and 300 feet wide with sufficient overruns to allow recovery of an aircraft without damage to it.

An airport in the lake, Dines said, would cause many problems such as fog, ice, visibility, future high rise apartments along the lake, transportation to and from the site for employees, plus parking.

An airport in the southwest area, he said, would not interfere with O'Hare flight patterns or business and be much safer than a lake airport.

"The problems of building, maintaining and operating an airport on the lake are so great that it should not be built there," Dines was quoted.

Whose Flag On The Moon?

Whose flag will be flown on the moon when the first American astronauts land on the moon's surface? It has been rumored since the successful flight of Apollo 10 that the United Nation's flag will be raised instead of Old Glory.

In a recent House speech, the Congressman said: "Certainly the aerospace program is a U.S. commitment, made possible only by U.S. tax dollars, U.S. technology and the fearlessness of the U.S. astronauts -- some of whom have given their lives in this cause. To raise any other than the U.S. flag would be dishonest and inappropriate. When our men land on the moon, history and national pride demand that Old Glory be raised there."

NASA's assistant administrator for legislative affairs, Robert Allnutt, said that they were in the process of considering what symbolic articles such as flags or emblems would be carried on the historic flight.

We agree with Congressman Rarick. Space program has been a total commitment of the citizens of the U.S. The cost has been borne largely by the little people who pay more than their fair share of taxes. A number of U.N. members have heaped abuse on everything this nation has accomplished, both on earth and in space. But it is our astronauts who will achieve this goal. We will probably share the benefits of this achievement with our fellowmen, but the laurels belong to the American people.

It was this nation that wept when three courageous astronauts died on the launch pad in a tragic accident. These men wore the uniform of this nation. A uniform that has borne the nation's colors into space. These colors should be given a place on the moon, above all others.

What must be considered the worst bill of the current legislative session remains alive and kicking.

It is a proposal to start Illinois on a new system of road financing that ultimately will result in almost half of our gasoline tax going for interest rather than road construction.

The measure is House Bill 443 which has been amended to remove a few objectionable points, while adding others, but the basic measure would start Illinois on an interest-spending binge from which we would never recover.

The measure -- five times larger than any bond issue in our history -- has been reduced from a $2.25 billion bond issue for roads to a $2 billion bond issue but the interest has been raised from 6 to 7 per cent.

That means we will be spending more money on interest than for roads. If the bonds were to be retired normally on a 30-year basis, the result would be $2.1 billion in interest to $2 billion in road construction.

But a little sentence buried deep in the bill allows a postponement of the payment on principal for ten years, which means that the interest cost will be even higher.

Ten years from now your gas tax will rise at least 3 1/2 cents per gallon -- just for interest. That is, if the money goes only for interest. But if the present practice of allocating part of the tax revenue to local government is continued, it would take about 7 1/2 cents per gallon just for interest.

On top of that comes the payment of principal. If House Bill 443 passes, we can expect the gas tax to move up approximately ten cents per gallon ten years from now.

People will start screaming, but it will be too late.

The present bill is a "politicians dream" -- to build the roads now and 40 years from now people will still be paying for them.

Worse than that, it will start a trend which will be almost irreversible. This will be the easy route for builders of roads in the future.

Those who hold public office now can "point with pride" to roads we have built, and presumably the office holders are out of office before the awful truth and high taxes hit the public.

Illinois needs better roads, but we should pay for them as we do.

If we get caught in the trap of House Bill 443, we will never get out.

Editor's Desk

A LITTLE and almost forgotten private cemetery lies about a half mile or so on the west side of Rt. 53, formerly Rt. 66-A just south of Lockport West High School. This is the Bronson-Sisson private cemetery and was apparently part of the homestead. The Bronson stone home still stands on the east side of the street just slightly north of the cemetery but the Sisson home was taken down when it became a part of the Material Service Property.

Captain Holder Sisson came to this area in 1831, just a year after it was founded by Armstead Runyon. Captain Sisson was a captain in the Black Hawk War of 1832. He settled first in Lockport and then moved to the west side and was quite a colorful, historic figure.

But yet, today, many many years later, this historical cemetery lies amid rambling trees with vandalized graves and broken headstones.

However, the Lockport VFW and American Legion go out there each Memorial Day and place flags on the Bronson and Sisson graves honoring these men who served their country so well long years ago.

American Legion many years ago built a concrete wall around the tiny cemetery but that is all the care it has received. There certainly ought to be enough residents of this area interested in maintaining this cemetery and making it a historical site, reminiscent of our great ancestors who made this country safe for us. We should be proud of our heritage and at least be interested in having points of historical interest for our community.

Lockport Business and Professional Women's Club have taken over such a project in the Runyon Cemetery and have had the headstones restored and new ones added to make them legible. Grass is cut in the tiny cemetery and there is easy access to this cemetery. They have also managed to have the name changed from Legion Park to Runyon Park.

Can we make this appeal to all Lockport organizations on both the east and west side? This project is certainly worthy of consideration. Is this all we care about the great men of the past who were brave enough to venture out and domesticate this wild land for us?

The old library, long torn down, could have been a museum for Lockport historic items but dollar signs took precedent over this. The old Boyer mansion had outgrown its usefulness as a public library as the community was growing too rapidly but it would have made a lovely museum.

The old Illinois and Michigan Canal office, we hope, will definitely be turned over to the Will County Historical Society. Since this building belonged to the state, no one had the right or authority to demand that it be removed to make room for so-called progress. If buildings are maintained they can become show places and attract tourists. Or do you want everyone racing right thru the heart of Lockport like they do now?

How do you feel about maintaining this Bronson-Sisson cemetery? Or is everyone too busy worrying about himself? Do you have an interest in your community or are you just living here to take what you can without giving anything to your community? Think about it. We feel it is worthy of some thought.

Dear Editor,

This is an open letter to the two young male morons, two boys? They stopped their white Chevrolet sedan in the street at 151st St. and Cove Ave., north of Lockport 6:10 p.m. Saturday, June 7, to chase a pair of old mallards who were in our front ditch.

The hen duck they caught and stole, jumped back in their car and sped away leaving the drake mate. Both ducks were at least 10 years old.

I'll bet that they have a big story to tell their friends. Some contribution they are starting to make to society.

Sincerely,
Millard J. Bessey

Open Letter from the HIRSCHS'

Dear friends,

The public's viewpoint is always changing. Not so many years ago, people hesitated to buy life insurance because it suggested the possibility of death. Today, nearly everyone has insurance.

It is the same in our profession. It is quite common now for individuals to make complete plans in advance for their own funerals, just as they would buy insurance or make a will.

Respectfully,

Carl H. Hirsch

We're making some changes to speed up direct distance dialing for most Frankfort subscribers.

Starting Saturday, June 21, an operator will no longer come on the line when a Frankfort customer with one or two party service dials a long distance call direct.

Instead, the calling telephone number will be recorded instantly, automatically.

Of course, our operators will still be on duty 24 hours a day to handle calls that can't be dialed direct, to provide numbers not in your local directory, and to help you in an emergency.

We hope that you'll be as pleased with this change as we are. It's another step designed to make calling easier and faster for you.

We helped build America. Now we keep it moving.

Santa Fe, in its 101st year is moving toward new ways to serve America's growing need for faster and more efficient distribution methods. Talk about fast service. We give you "Super C", the world's fastest freight train. Now running as a market-tester for Piggy-Back and container cargos between Chicago, Kansas City and Southern California.

Talk about communications. Our microwave network and data center uses third-generation computers to keep constant control of car movements, and to help develop new methods that serve you better.

How about capital expenditures? During 1969, we're spending $190 million for new equipment, modernization of facilities and development of new projects.

For our equipment fleet we are acquiring 2,600 new freight cars, 90 high horsepower diesels, 25 remote locomotive control units, 1,263 vans for highway and Piggy-Back service, along with other vehicles.

We're completing a multi-million dollar expansion of our automated freight classification terminal at Kansas City.

We're expanding diesel shops, Piggy-Back and automobile handling facilities for Chicago, Texas and California.

Other major improvements include the replacement of 417 track miles with continuously welded rail and the construction of a 31-mile spur track to serve new sulphur deposits in West Texas.

And we're constructing 2,000 miles of Gulf Central Pipeline to transport anhydrous ammonia from producing areas of Louisiana to the farmlands of central U.S.A.

We want to serve you better, no matter how you want to ship: by rail, by highway, Piggy-Back or container, and by pipeline. And through industrial development, we can provide plant sites across 13,000 miles of one of the fastest growing sections of the U.S.A.

We helped build America. Now we keep it moving.

Wait till you see what a gaslight does for your patio. Gaslight doesn't shine like ordinary light... it glows, like candlelight. It's festive, flattering... and, best of all, it doesn't attract insects.

Choose from a variety of models. Maybe an elegant traditional or a modern model. Choose one for the patio and one for the front lawn. Easy terms available, too. But hurry. Sale ends June 30th.

The number to call is listed in your phone book under "Northern Illinois Gas Company, Sales and New Construction." Call now, and move outdoors in style!

in the long run.

Gas will never cost you much. (You'll get up to 27 miles to the gallon.)

And the amount of oil you use is like a drop in the bucket. It only takes 2.7 quarts and almost never needs more between changes.)

And the engine is air-cooled, so you don't have to spend a red cent for anti-freeze or rust inhibitors.

And you get more than your money's worth out of a set of tires.

But don't think buying a new Volkswagen is just another get-rich-quick scheme.

You have to wait until the second set of tires wears out.

ONE WILL FIND most anything at the annual Flea Market to be staged by the Woman's Society of Marley Community Church in Haley Park—which is next door to the church—from 9 to 4 o'clock this Saturday, June 21. Here's a merry-go-round horse, for example, and there will be a flock of antiques—glassware, furniture, clocks, appliances etc. The church benefits from the proceeds of the White Elephant booth, the refreshment stand and the rental of booth space to antique dealers. Mrs. Herbert Crabb, co-chairman, is at the left and Mrs. James Tilsy, (right) has charge of the refreshments. The chairman no in the picture, is Mrs. William Little. How about one of those old wagons in the background? Nice chasis for a station wagon.

Soil Appreciation School Set

JOLIET—Understanding soil and its properties are important to everyone. We build hi-ways, schools, industry and homes on it. Between these structures we try to green the landscape by growing grass, shrubs and trees explains George J. Young, Will County Assistant Extension Adviser.

Under the soil surface we put septic fields and tile lines in hopes of disposing of waste and draining surface water.

With almost 70 soil types in Will County, and each type having its own productivity and drainage characteristics, it is important that everyone who builds, buys lands or grows plants on the soil have an understanding of it.

A 4-H Soil Appreciation School open to all interested persons will be held July 2 to help youngsters and their parents better understand soils Young explains. The school is sponsored by the Will County Cooperative Extension Service.

Dr. William Oschwald, University of Illinois Extension

Agonomist, will lead the discussions and conduct demonstrations at the school.

The school will be held on George Barr's farm, one mile south of Wilton Center on the blacktop, starting at 9 a.m. and ending about noon.

All interested youngsters and parents are invited says Young. University of Illinois Circular 758, Understanding Soils, can be obtained by calling the Will County Cooperative Extension Service, 727-1173, Joliet.

Joliet Will Build Major New Facility

Joliet Region Chamber of Commerce officials were quietly celebrating today in the wake of the announcement of a major new facility for Joliet by Mobil Oil Company.

Mobil, the nation's second largest oil company and the seventh largest corporation according to the current "Fortune 500" listing, revealed its plans for a 160,000 barrel-a-day refinery near Joliet Wednesday morning.

"We are very pleased to have Mobil join with us in Joliet," Chamber president John R. Rogers said. "Mobil has an outstanding growth record and is well known as an excellent employer and an excellent citizen in the communities in which it has facilities."

Mobil has established an office in Joliet to house a project team which is designing the construction specifications for the new refinery.

"As part of the Joliet industrial community, Mobil will join with an impressive number of national firms serving the growing midwestern markets," Rogers said. "We at the Joliet Region Chamber were very pleased to be able to work with the people at Mobil during the firm's investigation of our area. We wish to extend to Mobil not only our congratulations but our pledge of support to make this new Joliet facility truly a model for the industry."

Construction of the new plant is expected to begin next spring with completion scheduled for mid-1972.
